

Director

St. Paul's Episcopal Nursery School, Pittsburgh (Mt Lebanon), PA 15228

Application deadline: January 15, 2012. Position opening for a director of a NAEYC-accredited nursery school. The Director oversees all operations for the school and is responsible for managing the financials, recruitment/retention of students and employees, developing/maintaining positive relationships with teachers/children/parents. Undergraduate degree in child development, early childhood education or related field required. Classroom experience required. Masters Degree in child development or early childhood education preferred. In addition the ideal candidate would have leadership experience. Benefits included in salary package. Send resume/cv with cover letter and clearances to Aimee Girod at spensdirectorsearch@gmail.com